

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN GLOBAL URBAN HEALTH

Master Thesis Cohort 2021/2022

Cohort	Student	Title
2021/2022	Nagham Alrassamny (Lebanon)	Health Consequences of Climate Change in Different Social Strata: A Scoping Review
	Kelly Baldwin Heid (USA)	An Empirical Study of Freiburg Packt An's Street Tree Sponsorship Program and Perceived Mental Health Outcomes of Participants
	Natalia Buritica Guevara (Colombia)	Community acceptance of a novel vector control method promoted through a social mobilisation program with digital media: A qualitative study
	Abdilahi Mohamed Elmi (Somalia)	Incidence and pattern of injuries from road traffic accidents (RTA) among the patients presented in May 2020 to May 2021 to the Hargeisa Group Hospital, Somaliland: Secondary data analysis on retrospective observational study
	Nicole Holliday (USA)	The Effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic on the Physical & Mental Wellbeing of LGBTQ+ Individuals in Moldova: A Qualitative Analysis
	Hurriyat Kurbanbaeva (Uzbekistan)	The Healthcare System in Uzbekistan in International Comparison on the example of Trust in Doctors
	Leo Arsha Mbachilin (Nigeria)	The impact of Covid-19 on the informal and formal sectors of the Nigerian society: A scoping review and analysis of mass media
	Rehema Mkamburi Mwazighe (Kenya)	Global dynamics of Respiratory Syncytial Virus in children during the 2020/21 season: a systematic review
	Ochanya Anthonia Ogidi (Nigeria)	Brain drain of Doctors, Nurses and Lab Scientists in Nigeria Health sector before and during the Covid-19 pandemic
	Godfred Otchere (Ghana)	Rural-Urban Migrants and Healthcare Access in Ghana and Nigeria: A Scoping Review
	Lidya Bethsi Evangeline Saptanno (Indonesia)	Identifying and Analyzing Multisectoral Promotive and Preventive Strategies for Adolescent Students Mental Health Problems in Indonesia
	Shirin Ayaz Shaikh (India)	Negative Outcomes Due to Bad Oral Health. The Relationship between Oral Health And Aging
	Kanjane Sumatchaya (Thailand)	Internet Usages, Mental Health and Social Relationships in Adolescents During the COVID-19 Pandemic in Thailand
	Venkata Naga Rushyendar Sunkara (India)	A Lesson from German health insurance system to India
Reagan Marilyn Tichenor (USA)	Facilitators and Barriers to Appropriate Health Services Utilization	