Master scholarships for students from the Ukraine and graduates from countries of the DAC list fleeing the war in Ukraine

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

1

The Scholarship programme for students fleeing the war in Ukraine is a subprogramme of the programme “Development Related Postgraduate Courses”. It is funded by the Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development and managed by the German Academic Exchange service. Its goal is to provide Master scholarships to students who are nationals of the Ukraine or originate from a country of the DAC list and whose studies are interrupted because of the war in Ukraine. Scholarship holders are given the opportunity to take a Master's degree at a state or state-recognised German university to obtain a university qualification in Germany.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

2

The programme is open for very well qualified graduates from the Ukraine as well as for graduates from countries of the DAC list fleeing the war in Ukraine with a first university degree (bachelor or equivalent). Being a young graduate with professional experience for at least 2 years in a relevant field at the time of application is of advantage.

- those students who started their Master studies in Ukraine, hence had a student status at a recognised Ukrainian higher education institution on 24 February 2022 and fled because of the war;

Main DAAD selection criteria:

- study results so far
- Proof of Language Skills:
 - English – IELTS or TOEFL
 - German – required for courses taught in German

Note: For detailed information see the relevant master´s course description on their web pages

- at least two years of working experience in a relevant field at the time of application is of advantage
- a convincing description of the subject-related and personal motivation for the study project in Germany and the expected benefit when returning to the home country
- Most recent university degree should be obtained in the last six years prior to the application for the scholarship.

All master´s courses have further additional requirements that must be considered by the applicants.

PLACE OF TENURE

3

Scholarships are awarded for selected Master's courses within the programme "Development Related Postgraduate Courses"
